Charity No. 228235

Now that we've reopened the front doors to our iconic city centre home, we invite you to enjoy all the exciting benefits a partnership with the UK's oldest continuously running theatre brings.

Bring a touch of theatrical magic to your VIP client entertainment with an allocation of top price complimentary tickets.

Receive complimentary and discounted access to our exquisite new entertainment spaces in the heart of the city.

Increase your brand exposure and advertising opportunities, aligning your business with our national and international reputation for artistic excellence and achievement, and reaching over 100,000 audience members annually.

Enhance your employee reward programme with discounts on tickets and at 1766 Bar & Kitchen, and invitations to behind the scenes experiences.

Add an inspiring creative touch to your Board meetings, away days and presentations with the use of our meeting spaces.

Demonstrate your company's commitment to providing life-changing opportunities to young people and Bristol's diverse communities. Each year we connect with over 20,000 young people across every ward in Bristol delivering activities to inspire, nurture, develop confidence and widen opportunities.

"Osborne Clarke shares hundreds of years of Bristol history with Bristol Old Vic and we have played many roles with the theatre over those centuries. Most recently we have been a founding corporate member and we have made bold decisions such as taking our clients to the wonderful and bawdy 'The Life and Times of Fanny Hill'. We are delighted to still support Bristol Old Vic as it builds for the future."
