

BRISTOL OLD VIC EVENTS

COOPERS' HALL DDR PACKAGE

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN AND WE'RE READY TO HOST YOUR CONFERENCE

Our newly renovated event space Coopers' Hall, is an elegant space which brings with it a touch of tradition whilst being a modern and contemporary venue, perfect for hosting your conference, getting your team inspired and thinking outside of their usual four walls.

The space is flexible so with the help of our events team and catering partner, we can make it an inspiring and productive conference.

Our catering partner Fosters Events will be on hand throughout the whole planning process, to guide you through from your first enquiry and initial show around, to helping you make the most of the space. The team will make sure that the all-important details are not forgotten, so you don't have to.

INSPIRE YOUR TEAM

We encourage all guests to explore the rich history that Bristol Old Vic has to offer, a place where culture, heritage and creativity are brought to life and shared everyday. From the immersive 'Noises off' corridor on the 4th floor Gallery or exploring the 250 year history depicted across the Pit horseshoe wall, to looking through 'A Window to the Past' via our augmented reality experience. To make the most of your breaks, just ask your Event Manager or reception to point you in the right direction.
