About Us

Following a multi-million-pound transformation, Bristol Old Vic provides a dramatic, inspirational and creative venue, combining heritage with a contemporary event space.

When you book with us, our events & catering partner Fosters Events will look after all the important details, from your first enquiry until the last guest leaves, ensuring that organising your event is as smooth as possible.

What's more, as a registered charity, income generated from holding your event with us will go towards supporting Bristol Old Vic for future generations.

Coopers' Hall

Centrally located on King Street in the heart of Bristol, is the magnificent, Grade I listed Coopers' Hall.

With high ceilings and huge over-arching windows, the elegantly-renovated hall will provide a sophisticated backdrop for your event.

Coopers' Hall can host up to 120 guests for a formally seated dinner, 110 for a conference and 180 for a standing canapé or networking reception.

“Coopers' Hall is a beautiful cultural venue for hire and the events team are fantastic. The tech set up was faultless and the team were so attentive and put our mind at ease, allowing us to come and see the venue and test out the equipment beforehand. It was perfect for our workshop session and we would definitely book the space again.”

The Foyle Room houses a 55" TV with internet connectivity and web camera, concealed within a bespoke fitted cabinet, ideal for meetings and presentations.

Venue Takeovers

Looking for that wow factor? Then our full venue takeovers might be for you. Available on key Sundays throughout the year, you and your guests can take over our stunning auditorium to host talks or awards shows, before carrying on the party within 1766 Bar & Kitchen.

“The team at Bristol Old Vic were an absolute delight to work with, they could not accommodate us more than they did. Our brief had lots of moving parts, and they handled this extremely well – often going beyond the service we paid for, and always with a smile on their face. The food was delicious – we were very excited about the menu and it exceeded our expectations. We would recommend this venue to anyone planning a party, wedding or corporate event.”
