

BRISTOL OLD VIC

WHAT KIND OF PLAY?

Over the course of two-and-a-bit centuries, our theatre has delighted the people of Bristol and beyond with almost every kind of play imaginable. Our opening night on 30th May 1766, for example, began with an orchestra recital which led into a comedy The Conscious Lovers and then the farce The Citizen.

Hidden in this word search are just some of the types of play which have taken place on our stage, can you find them?
